

PROCEDURE FOR OMSC SILENT ART AUCTION

1. Register at the CHECK IN table in the lobby. Bidding will be done by name, not by number or ticket number.
2. Each painting has a minimum bid. All bids must equal or exceed the stated minimum. Your initial bid may be larger than the minimum and, in fact, that may be your best bidding strategy.
3. After a bid is placed on an item you must raise the bid by an amount equal to or greater than the increment shown.
4. Closing time for each group of paintings is as shown. Closing times are staggered to allow for an organized auction.
5. Funds raised today are being used for a good cause—OMSC's artist in residence program. Bid generously!
6. After each closing round, the winning bidder for each painting will be announced. You may pick up your artwork at the CHECK OUT table in the lobby at that time or at the conclusion of the evening.
7. All artwork is to be paid for tonight. Artwork not taken with you tonight will be available to be picked up at OMSC, 490 Prospect Street, New Haven, CT 06511. Call: (203) 624-6672.

What happens to the OMSC-owned art not auctioned tonight and the art being exhibited at MOBIA?

Paintings not auctioned tonight and several of those in the MOBIA exhibition will be available for purchase. Check www.OMSC.org/notices.html for additional information.
