

Sundholm

McGee

Shenk

Carroll

Robert

Chung

Irvin

OMSC Student Seminars on World Mission—January 2008

THY WILL BE DONE ON EARTH:

Good News in Deed and Word

Dries

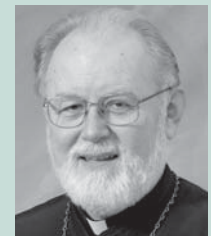

Oladipo

Kinnamon

McClure

Kishkovsky

Jenkins

Skreslet

Week One: January 7–11, 2008, at Mercy Center, Madison, Conn.

Rev. James V. Sundholm, Covenant World Relief, Chicago, Ill., Pursuit of Justice as Christian Mission. Dr. Gary B. McGee, Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, Springfield, Mo., Pentecostal Contributions to World Mission. Dr. David W. Shenk, Eastern Mennonite Missions, Salunga, Pa., Peaceable Witness Among Muslims. Sr. Janet Carroll, M.M., U.S. Catholic China Bureau, South Orange, N.J., China's Christians: Witnessing to the Gospel in the Contemporary Context. Dr. Dana L. Robert, Boston University School of Theology, Boston, Mass., Gifted for Ministry: Contributions of Women to World Mission. Rev. John E. Chung, Park Street Church, Boston, Mass., Bringing Mission Home to the Local Church. Dr. Dale T. Irvin, New York Theological Seminary, New York, N.Y., The City in Mission.

Week Two: January 14–18, 2008, at Mercy Center, Madison, Conn.

Dr. Angelyn Dries, O.S.F., Saint Louis University, St. Louis, Mo., Spirituality for Mission: Twentieth-Century Roman Catholic Examples with Implications for Today. Dr. Caleb O. Oladipo, Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond (Va.), The Role of Mission in Post-Apartheid South Africa. Dr. Michael Kinnamon, Eden Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., Ecumenism and Mission. Dr. Marian McClure, Presbyterian Church (USA), Louisville, Ky., Getting Past the Word-Deed Dichotomy in Mission. Fr. Leonid Kishkovsky, Orthodox Church in America, Sea Cliff, N.Y., Mission in the Orthodox Tradition. Dr. Willis Jenkins, Yale University Divinity School, New Haven, Conn., Ecological Missiology? Sustaining Mission in an Era of Environmental Crises. Dr. Stanley H. Skreslet, Union Theological Seminary/PSCE, Richmond, Va., The Mission of Missiology: Critical Reflection on Christian Words and Deeds.

Week Three: January 21–25, 2008, at OMSC, New Haven, Conn.

A Postcolonial Anthropology for Mission in a Globalizing World.

Dr. Michael A. Rynkiewich, professor of anthropology, Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky, introduces the contributions an anthropological perspective offers for missionary practice. Cosponsored by The Mission Society and United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries. Eight sessions. $145

Rynkiewich

Week Four: January 28–February 1, 2008, at OMSC, New Haven, Conn.

Ethnicity as Gift and Barrier: Human Identity and Christian Mission.

Dr. Tite Tiénou, dean, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Deerfield, Illinois, works from first-hand experience in Africa to identify the “tribal” issues faced by the global church in mission. Cosponsored by InterVarsity Missions/Urbana. Eight sessions. $145

Tiénou

Registration is $145 per week; $90 per week for students from cosponsoring seminaries. Academic credit may be arranged by students through their own seminaries. See the registration form for housing and food charges.

Print a registration form by visiting www.OMSC.org/january.html.

OVERSEAS MINISTRIES STUDY CENTER

490 Prospect Street, New Haven, CT 06511 USA

(203) 624-6672, ext. 315 Fax: (203) 865-2857 study@OMSC.org